

If you pursue your plan to donate $325,000 in airtime to Republican candidates, I intend to join with others when you come up for renewal of your license, and object to giving you the access to the public airwaves.

You use the public airwaves free of charge and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Pappas' actions are legally questionable and cast doubt on whether Pappas truly intends to serve the public interest. Their actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. Further, they show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than just a returned postcard. Thank you.